

Qualified Lawyers Transfer Test (QLTT)

ACT NOW!

We urge anyone who has a QLTT Certificate of Eligibility to complete the exams as soon as possible, as the new regime, the QLTS, is much more rigorous and expensive than the QLTT. Our course programme is now offered at a special price of only £195 for any written Head.

What is the Qualified Lawyers Transfer Test?

The Qualified Lawyers Transfer Test (QLTT) is a conversion Test, which enables lawyers qualified in certain countries outside England and Wales, as well as UK barristers, to qualify as English solicitors. The Test is administered under the supervision of the Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), the regulation arm of the Law Society of England and Wales.

The QLTT is one of aptitude rather than memory and examinees are allowed to take into the Test any book, document or other written material. You also need to satisfy the examiners that your knowledge of the English language is at the standard required to practise as a solicitor in England and Wales. The pass mark is only 50%.

Eligibility

The QLTT is open only for those candidates who obtained or applied for a Certificate of Eligibility on or before August 2010. Candidates who did not apply or obtain their certificate before August 31, 2010, will not be able to take the QLTT and need to go through the new QLTS route. You must complete the exams and fulfill any outstanding requirements before the expiry of your Certificate of Eligibility.

Exam Format

The QLTT covers four main subject areas, also known as "Heads":

- Property (Head I)
- Litigation (Head II)
- Professional Conduct and Accounts (Head III)
- Principles of Common Law (Head IV)

Not all candidates are required to pass all four Heads of the Test. The number of Heads you must pass should be specified in your Certificate of Eligibility. Some candidates also need to satisfy the SRA that they have gained two years of Common Law experience within the past five years of which at least one year must have been gained by practicing the law of England and Wales.

You may choose the number of Heads you wish to take each time. In the event that you do not pass one Head, you can re-sit the test for that Head alone on any available date you choose.

Why Qualify as an English Solicitor?

Becoming an English solicitor may mean:

- Discovering new career opportunities
- Working as a solicitor in England and Wales
- Enhancing your professional profile, reputation and marketability in your home jurisdiction
- Offering a wider range of legal services to your clients
- Gaining a foothold in the EU market
- Winning more business and increasing your revenues

"The quality of your programme reached far beyond my expectations. The subjects were expertly organised, concise and immensely helpful. I would definitely recommend you to my colleagues".

Our Course Programme

With over ten years' experience and thousands of international lawyers who have successfully qualified as English solicitors, One World Studies has an excellent reputation and a high candidate pass rate.

We make it easy to study for the QLTT. We have the best materials and the most experienced tutors and dedicated support staff available seven days a week to address your needs.

Our course programme includes distance learning courses, specially written study manuals with law, case study, practice and procedure, self-assessment questions and answers, specimen examination papers with suggested answers, periodical updates for the study manuals until you sit your exams, and tutor support. You will also get access to hundreds of practice questions on our online study portal.

The course programme is offered at a very attractive and affordable price - just £195 for any written Head and £50 for Head IV.

Our course materials are designed to meet the QLTT syllabus and therefore can be used with any of the test providers' exams.

Test Venues, Dates and Fees

The QLTT exams are administered by SRA-authorized test providers. The SRA is now inviting QLTT providers to seek reauthorisation to continue to offer the tests until August 2013. It is therefore highly recommended that you complete your exams as quickly as possible, as the opportunities to take QLTT in the future will be very limited.

For details about test venues, dates and fees, please contact us or the SRA directly.

Test Results and Admission to the Roll of Solicitors

Test results are usually available within six to eight weeks after the examination. Once you have passed the Test and fulfilled any other outstanding conditions of the Certificate of Eligibility, you may apply for admission to the Roll of Solicitors of England and Wales and get your practising certificate.

"I found the combination between your distance learning courses and the on-line programme very unique and invaluable. It was just what I had been looking for - studying at home or at the office yet feeling like I was attending face-to-face lessons".
